

INTENTION APPLICATION

I hereby set my intention to change my financial health today. I am committed to changing my relationship with money. I will not attach my personal worth with my credit score, bank account value, or income, but rather view my financial status as something malleable and ever shifting. I will not attach happiness to a number. I will act based on my heart's desires with a healthy understanding of consequence.

Each time a I take _____ Essence I set my intention _____

I am giving _____ as an energy exchange in order to procure my essence. I commit to taking this essence 2x a day for the next 31 days. The essence will be taken on an empty stomach. After consuming 3-5 drops, I will restate my intention. To begin my journey I will write a list of how I currently feel about my relationship to money. At the end of my 31 day journey I will revisit the list and observe the subtle shifts.
